Executive summary

D1.1 final purpose is to establish common documentation to be followed by the partners. It also provides a clear division of tasks table for each committee/board envisaged in the project.

The anticipated benefit of utilizing standard formats is that neuGRID partners have a set of templates that they can use without having to reinvent them every time.

For this reason, common templates and forms have been developed and put on the website (http://www.neugrid.eu/m_accessi/autenticazione01.php) to be used by each participant in order to document the project's progress (both scientific and administrative/financial).

On the other hand, the commitees' table is meant to give a clear and simplified overview of the Management structure of the project, by summarizing the main tasks of the committees envisaged in the project and specifying their members.

1 Introduction

In order to manage the reporting activity in a standardized manner, the beneficiaries deemed necessary to make available a set of standard forms and templates.

The templates and forms for reporting includes those requested by the EC guidelines for this matter, as well as additional templates which may be useful for collecting a complete set of information for this scope.

2 Methodological approach

The work done for this deliverable can be summarized in 3 main phases:

- 1. presentation of slides on actions for reporting to participants during the project start-up meeting and related answer to questions from partners;
- 2. common templates design (in line with EC guidelines);
- 3. distribution and training on their completion to both scientific and administrative neuGRID teams.

Phase 1) Presentation of slides on actions for reporting to participants during the project start-up meeting;

During the neuGRID Start-Up meeting in February 2008 the reporting requirements have been explained and discussed, in order to address specific questions from the participants. Furthermore, the essential project documents, such as the core contract, its annexes, the budget for each partner, the template for time sheets have been distributed in a CD by P8-CFc.

Phase 2) As a follow up to Phase 1, the design of reporting templates and standard forms mainly involved CO1 FBF and P8 CFc, based on the needs expressed by the beneficiaries from the beginning of the project.

Phase 3) distribution and training on their completion to both scientific and administrative NEUGRID teams to be performed versus each partners (one to one) through specific e-mail contacts, conference calls and ad-hoc contacts with administrative people of each neuGRID unit.

3 Activities and results

The following guidance, templates and forms have been produced:

- a reporting table, summarizing all the contractual deliverables, according to the Grant Agreement;
- the Periodic Report structure;
- the Financial statement form;
- the template for time sheets;
- short guidelines to calculate the number of productive hours per year (to be checked with administrative department of each partner);
- standard template for the project deliverables;
- standard template for ppt. presentation

3.5 Calculation of Productive Hours per Year

neuGRID

Example of Calculation of Productive Hours per Year

'Productive Hours Per Year' are the average number of chargeable, productive hours per month normally available for recharging purposes (i.e. after allowances for holidays, sickness etc.) for each employee and for 12 months per year. A full time employee contributes 12 man months per year. The personnel costs per year for this employee therefore normally amount to: 12 x (the number of productive hours per month) x (the personnel costs per hour).

In order to obtain an hourly rate, the total productive personnel costs have to be divided by the total productive hours. Total productive hours can be obtained either from time sheets or from summaries of time records, or on the basis of the total workable hours according to the employment contract, less a certain provision for non-chargeable time such as sickness, holidays, etc. In the latter case, an example for determining the total productive hours per year could be as follows:

Subtotal	261 days
Less 52 Weekends	104 days
Days/year	365 days

Subtotal minus:

Total = Productive days	210 days
Illness/other	15 days
Statutory holidays	15 days
Annual holidays	21 days

Conversion of days to hours is based upon the legally established working hours per day for your country, e.g.:

Productive hours/year (210 days x 7 hrs/day)	1470 hrs
Productive hours/year (210 days x 7.5 hrs/day)	1575 hrs
Productive hours/year (210 days x 8 hrs/day)	1680 hrs

5 Conclusions

Common templates and forms are available to each beneficiary. This enables them to document easily the project's progress (both scientific and administrative/financial) and, consequently, to manage the reporting activity in a standardized manner.

A table on the project's committees, their tasks and members is available to each partner. It provides partners with a simplified overview of the Management structure of the project.
